version of the DisplayName field is missing from the registry recently." n I was trying to play Sims 4 and then this message came up. n When I try to load the game, I get the above popup asking: To be visible to all your friends and family, please enable and disable your browserprivate mode. Why: Check your Internet history to see if this is still a public address.. No way to see the details, username and password is not present. Please try again. However, if I enable Steam premium access in the privacy options, which also blocks me from my friends and family, then the message goes through fine. How can I turn it off?

This message appeared when I rebooted my machine. Then I returned to my normal state and tried to play the game, after that I got the message: omitting mod this will not help.
How can I disable this message?
